- V. Reports
 - a. Chairperson's Report
Chairperson Croke stated she attended the presentation on using the Medicare Plan Finder and Medicare Part D by Senior Services. She was very impressed by the presentation and found it incredibly helpful and informative. Chairperson Croke also stated she was impressed with the new newsletter, Access Point.

 - b. Trustee Liaison's Report
Trustee Steward seconded Chairperson Croke's feedback regarding the new newsletter format. He reported the Board will be discussing the levy at this month's Board meeting. Budget planning for FY24 has begun and discussions about the budget will continue in the coming months. The referendum for a 708 Mental Health Board passed in the November general election. At the Special Town Meeting in November, the electors approved the Township to enroll in the IMRF pension plan. This will provide employees with a stable pension and also save the Township approximately $1million over the next 10 years.

 - c. Director's Report
Director Cordes reported applications for the Holiday Adoption program have been collected from over 130 seniors. Director Cordes is working with the Community Relations Coordinator to recruit more donors through Facebook as donors are needed for approximately 20 more seniors. Medicare Open Enrollment continues and is going well. Staff calendars are filling up quickly, but staff are offering a limited number of evening appointments to help more residents.

- VI. Old Business

a. Funded Agency Reports

Reports were reviewed. Director Cordes indicated that she is working on getting missing reports from Kenneth Young Center.

VII. New Business

a. FY24 Funding Applicant Presentations

i. Hands On Suburban Chicago is requesting $3,800 for the AmeriCorps RSVP Program that provides volunteer opportunities to older adults.

ii. Connections to Care is requesting $3,500 to continue its work providing individualized transportation services to seniors for medical appointments.

b. Committee Member Updates/Questions

None.

VIII. Adjournment

Motion to adjourn made by Linda Kasinger. Seconded by Sheva Wohlhart. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned at 7:43pm.
