Department Highlights:

- The Township hosted the Greater Chicago Food Depository's regional meeting on October 14.
- WS team members hosted a fully decorated witch's "trunk" at District 54's John Muir's trunk or treat, with over 500 children in attendance.
- LaVelle Law concluded their annual food drive, donating trunks of non-perishables, $10,000 worth of staples from Tony's Fresh Market, and over $11,000 in financial donations for future purchases. LaVelle is a fantastic community partner. The Township is incredibly grateful for its unwavering community support.
- Schaumburg Township hosted Rich Township representatives for a pantry tour and informational gathering to help with their pantry expansion plan.
- Associate Director McGinn and Case Managers Fillmore and Barrera attended a GATI (General Assistance Training Institute) conference. This is a TOI (Township Officials of IL) basics of General Assistance, and staple for GA casework.
- The WS team said farewell to Dominican University intern, Natalie Huerta. Natalie completed nutrition training videos, client educational material, and more. She was a delight to work with and a benefit to our team and community.
- Volunteer Evelyn Miller accepted a temporary position with the WS Department to help during the next few months. With holiday programming, utility assistance demands, the government shutdown, SNAP changes, and a typical 10% pantry need increase in November and December, we are grateful for the support and thrilled to have Evelyn full-time.

Schaumburg Township Mission Statement:

Department Highlights

- On October 1st, Administration assisted Transportation in hosting an EV Open house. The event showed off the new fleet of electric buses and the parking lot infrastructure with chargers. Many of our local officials and other Township officials attended the event. Several residents came to enjoy light refreshments and see the improvements firsthand. Our new meeting space shone for the event and the Township received many compliments on our facility.
- Insulation installation started the weekend of October 10th and completed the following weekend. Administrator Williams has directed all staff to refrain from using space heaters and to notify Facilities if there are still issues with heat. Facilities are working closely with staff and adjusting the HVAC program to have settings better regulated.
- October 17th, Director Nelson, Administrator Williams and Director Dionesotes met with a full team from the architect's office and a team from the contractor's office reviewing drawings and walk the space for the Welfare Services lobby and loading dock upgrades. All parties involved are working diligently to be sure that each aspect of the plan is carried out to save money and time and improve resident engagement. Plans have been reviewed several times and will continue to be reviewed several more times to make sure nothing is missed.
